

Ps 27:1-3 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

You thought this was ALL propaganda against Islam, no this is the truth, my story is real and so am I. I love Muslims and do not hate them. This is not about propaganda but true love. Originally my family came out of Iran, from the tribal identity of Lewi.

Some of my family settled in India purchasing large amounts of land in ancient times and the rest remained in Iran with whom we lost contact after the partition in 1947. This was a time of terrible suffering for the Indian people with a civil war raging, my father who was six years old had to flee for his life to safety with his family. I was born in Lahore (Pakistan).

Meet Rabbi Simon Altan who would have thought a journey that started in Islam finished here. For Simon's books click the link here

Is Islam “Truth?” No!

I used to pray, fast, give charity – until one day my whole life changed.

I was working at an investment bank in London I heard what I am certain what I can only describe as God’s voice. I was told two words, FOLLOW ME which I later found echoed in Matthew 4:19.

“Come, follow me,” Yahushua said...

I didn’t know at the time that the people in England called this Person Jesus, who I came to know as Yeshua or Yahushua The Messiah.

I had asked God before where is salvation? He had directed me through his presence to go back to Moses for truth. I had asked God for Ten years in my 20s to talk to me physically, that call of my prayer was heard when I was 35 years old.

Doing my previous religious acts did not give me the peace I was searching for in my life until God directed me to go back to Moses for Truth and when I read Moses it led to me to the prophet people call Jesus.

For a certain period I thought where do I go to find the voice of the God of Abraham. I frequented the Church through some people I met, but realised that the Churches only practiced some of the truth and rejected the rest as outdated and old no longer relevant. When I looked back at Moses I realised, we needed to keep the 7th day Sabbath, seven annual festivals and of course kosher food laws according to the Holy Bible. However the Church was completely the opposite, no Sabbath, no annual festivals and certainly no Kosher food laws. I met some wonderful Christians through, who were kind and considerate but I also met some hostile ones who hated the Torah of Moses.

Just as my previous religion of Islam was in vain with no peace with God, so was this religion of Christianity in vain. I stayed for a few years trying to teach the people Torah and prophecy in Churches but I realised ultimately most will reject the Torah and I would not be any better off staying in these messianic churches. So I waited on God to direct me. Then God directed me to come out and I left the Church.

I then ran into issues with Christian slandering me for certain torah truths. I knew then that those that reject the message will only be admonished by God so best let them be and I walked away from these Churches.

I knew it was futile to argue with these people as they were stuck to their dogma and these people would only regurgitate what their Pastors told them. Many were happy with the gentile fellowship they get there and not really into FACTS on the ground, while I had lived all my life with FACTS that I could verify and not just someone's truth. They were happy with Jesus the one that the Church has painted as a lawless man, while I wanted the one that pointed back to the Torah and said:

So Yahushua said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples John 8:31

My "word", here denoting the Torah of Moses with the Revelation of Yeshua the Messiah.

My goal was to serve the Master Yeshua and not appease people around me. Since I had already lost my marriage with my ex Muslim wife for rejecting Islam that was enough to teach me its futile to argue with religionists as they don't know God but only decrees issues by Church men or Synagogues Rabbis which lacked God's stamp of approval.

I left the church system as utterly corrupt and not something that is for me to fix. Then God gave me to translate the Hebrew Bible, while I was translating the Hebrew and Greek NT I realised the number of problems in the text of the New Testament likely introduced by gentile scribes. However I faithfully translated the Books into the first translation into the title Abrahamic-Faith Netzarim Study Scriptures (AFNHSS) and the later renamed that to the Hidden-Truths Hebraic Scrolls Study Scriptures (HTHS).

In 2004 God in Israel had told me I was a Levite, I didn't know what that meant at that point let alone even grasp the enormity of what was mission going to be. Later in 2006 God re-iterated this to me in London in my office, then I went back to Pakistan to visit my father there and asked him where did we come from as I had only known that my family came from India during the time of the British Partition in 1947. However, my dad told me, we are not from India but from Iran the once mighty Persian Empire and he categorically the first and last time echoed these words to me, "YOU HAVE GONE TO THE FAITH OF YOUR FOREFATHERS THE JEWS."

I was speechless, I didn't say anything.

That was a bit of a bombshell. I then realised we were Persian Jews, levites who later at some point in history a part of my family in India who were attached to the lands converted to Islam. Everything now became clear to me but this was something my family did not want to discuss living in Islamic lands they were happy considering themselves Muslims.

I started to tell the people who the real children of Israel were, Negroes who came in captivity in the West. Also I knew many who were in Pakistan and India from the 12 tribes not all necessarily Negro looking but people of brown skins through mixtures of intermarriages.

I had already directed that many shemites were actually black Negro people who had become part of the transatlantic slavery and under curses. Most out there think that the children of Israel are the Caucasian Ashkenazim Jews (these converted to Judaism in Khazaria near the Caspian Sea in the 8th Century CE). Another uncomfortable truth most in Churches did not want to hear about.

I was not part of any Church system so I started to teach as God directed me. God had told me I had a mission on my hand and that I was part of the restoration of true Israel and I needed to teach the Torah and I was to leave everything else behind. The rest was God's prerogative. I did exactly as God directed and started to teach on the highways and by ways just as my Messiah Yahushua when he was rejected by the Jewish orthodoxy.

Luke 14:23 And the Master said to the servant, Go out into the highways and country roads, and urge people to come in, that my Beyth (house) may be filled.

Many years back when I first came out of Islam I was earning more than $100,000 salary. God had broken my comfort zone to see if I was faithful to him and I showed faith and more importantly Loyalty. Later in 2015 God told me when I was on a different job still earning over 100k that I must leave my job and go to North America. I am not a dreamer and hardly dream. God gave me a dream to walk after him and resign from the job. I resigned from my job three days later without fear. My colleagues were utterly shocked. I told them its time to go, God calls, I must go.

I knew because I went to Israel to repent with some members of the tribe of Judah and Ephraim in 2014 May as part of a prophecy of Hose 5:15, from the East and West that things were no longer going to be the same. God had lifted my level of understanding another two notches.

My task as a Kohen became much more responsible. I could no longer just take a back seat. I had to correct everything to do with idolatry and help our people to remove idolatry from their midst to be prepared for the second Exodus. I told people the truth as God instructed me that Jesus had to be understood correctly and not be made into a law breaker or license for sin.

That rocked a few boats for sure. Do I really care? No. I just walk with God as did Moses. He had told me in 2004 in Israel that I was a type of Moses to dig the staff in the ground and living waters will rise and heal his people and I will go country to country to proclaim the Torah truths. The time we went to Israel to repent at the real Jerusalem site, in Tel Arad, the real House of King David's tabernacle, after our prayers there when I entered the court of the priests only permitted to the Kohanim. A day after Israel had the largest rain fall indicating God had accepted our prayers.

*I encourage all of you to walk after Torah and reject all man made idolatries just as I did. For more info please see my videos on youtube;

Everything I had taught on prophecy ten years ago is also now coming to pass. I had taught that a group of extremist Muslims will rise in the middle-east and destroy many things, kill many people. They will try to destroy Saudi Arabia. I also taught that Britain and other EU nations will expel extremist Muslims when they start committing local terrorism acts with the call of Jihad and remove their nationalities. This is now a reality. How did I know this 10 years ago? God revealed these things to come. I hope and pray that you too will find peace with God like me through his everlasting Torah and the Messiah Yehushua.
